Silent but Significant.

The work of temperance reform has been going on silently but surely in this State for the past decade. Clifton Forge and Covington, where we thought the whiskey interests were strongly intrenched, have recently joined the "dry" column, and it does look as though satan's last stronghold in the State would have to yield. Staunton and Harrisonburg and Charlottesville will next feel the pelting of righteous wrath and from each ramwart the white flag of surrender will be seen floating in mid air, and then the larger cities will be besieged and in due time they too will be made to surrender their increasing profits tho' residing under police protection, and when all the bar rooms have been barred out, Franklin and Farmville and Martinsville and Boydton and Meherrin will be looked after, and the dispensaries will be dispensed with, and then from mountain to sea-side and from river to river, on no one spot in Virginia will an ounce of strong drink be sold with the sanction of law. And do you say it will still be sold in defiance of law? Grant it, and our reply is that larceny and burglary, and murder may also be practiced, but all the time and every where in direct violation of laws of God and of man. We may not crush the monster but we will just have already put a mighty check on his nefarious work. Let the good work go on and may the day of complete deliverance soon dawn.

Appomattox at Jamestown

We want a good sample of the products of Appomattox County exhibited at Jamestown. The N. & W. Ry will give free space and free transportation. Will not our board make a small appropriation and appoint a committee to arrange and collect the exhibit?

"There was a time when men admired poets, orators, theologians, philosophers, novelists, historians. There was a time when our young men thought it worth while to strive to be like Marshall, Webster, Emerson and Washington irving. But how long will those illusions last under the teachings of the new gospel, which proclaims that nothing is really worth while except the brute force wielded by masses of money." Just so long as men, women and children worship money rather than manhood, gold rather than God. What chance does a poor man have any how in Church or State. The madness must end, however, or chaos will follow. Money buys things, but isn't a character builder.

We repeat the suggestion we have already made with the hope that our contemporaries of the State will take it up and press it upon the attention of our future Statesmen. Exact of each aspirant for a seat in the next legislat re the promise to vote for a bill making the Jim Crow law as effective at depots as on moving trains. The man who opposes the enactment of such a law is unworthy a seat in Virginia's legislative hall.

"There is enough Democracy in the country to rule it if all of it could be caught and organized" says the Washington Post. Just so. The trouble is that all Democrats are born leaders and unwilling to follow. There must be the rank and file ready to bear arms or there will never be another victory.

'Some men achieve greatness some are born great,' but the old Editor of the Charlottesville Progress waked up one fine morning to find himself more than famous. Lindday leads at this writing a d there is no dodging the fact.

Smoot, of Utah, will retain his seat in the Senate. His speech in defence of his right to it was one of the best of them all. His own lawyer and yet he did'nt have a fool for client.

"The Jefferson," at Richmond, is receiving finishing touches, and will soon shine out in its old national beauty and glory. Virginia will have no better advertising for the Jamestown Exposition era.

Mantee

The farmers have been unable to do much work owing to the wet weather.

Mr. Percy O'mohundro was a recent visitor to his mother of Omohundro.

Miss Florence Morriss has just recovered from a very severe spell

Mr. Frank Byzler's little son has been very sick with whooping cough but is better now.

Miss Willie Williams has returned to Richmond after nursing Mrs. S. C. Gibson for the past two months.

Mr. Hartwill Cabell and bride of Cincinnati, O. spent a part of their honey-moon at Edgewood, the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Phil Cabell.

Miss Kathrine Boatwright has returned home after spending some time in Danville.

Mrs. H. A. Nash died at her home near Glenmore, Va., Feb. 27th and was laid to rest Feb. 28th in the cemetery at Glenmore church. She leaves one daughter, Miss Nellie; two sons, Fred and Hubard, and a husband to mourn their loss, who have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

Mrs. Frances McCorcal, of Shelbyville, Ky., paid a short visit to her niece, Mrs. J. C. Taurens at "Interbrook." She was a missionary to Japan for 5 years and told many interesting things about that wonderful little country and its people.

Miss Edna Papacots, of near Warren, is spensing some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Layne.

A dog left home last Monday and came to Manteo Mill and acted so like a mad dog that it was shot by the miller, but he missed it. The dog came up the river and fought other dogs at a good many places until it finally reached the home of F. R. Moon, where it killed a hen and 29 chickens, and was not seen any more until it entered the home of Mr John Damron (a disance of about 5 miles) and did his best to bite him, but was killed in the house with a stick.

Miss Hurt, of Wythville, is nursing Mrs. Sue C. Gibson, whom we are glad to report a little better.

Mr. J. T. Morris, of Warren, was in our town a few days ago looking after the interest of Mr Chas. E. Hughes, of Charlottesville.

Mr. F. R. Moon paid a flying visit to "Shirland," the home of his mother, Mrs. C. C. Moon, near Scottsville, last Sunday.

March marched in with a plenty of wind, but that is what we want to dry the land. Seed oats 75c, and clover seed $9.50, but sow anyway Mr. Farmer.

Centenary.

DEAR MR. EDITOR:—As I have not seen anything from this neighborhood for a long time I will give you a few items. We have had some bad weather and rough wet roads, but I think if March winds continue to blow as they have for the last two days that the roads will soon be dry and farmers will soon start to work. Some have already burnt their plant beds and are fixing for another crop of tobacco. I think every body must have been pleased with the prices they got for tobacco, as I have heard no complaint.

The board of trustees of the Slate River district only gave the patrons of Rock Island school a three month's session this time, commencing the 23rd of January, and gave Miss Gracie Norvell for teacher. I don't think she will make as good average as they generally make at that school for the patrons had made other arrangements about sending their children to school.

Miss Edna Tapscott is visiting her cousin, Mr. John Layne, near Manteo.

Mr. J. M. Tapscott lef about 2 weeks ago for West Virginia, where he is at work.

Mr George Sargent and Mr. John Sargent and wife have all been sick with la grippe, but I think they are improving now.

Mr. M. P. Baber has just commenced building a new dwelling house.

With much success for the A. and B. TIMES. FROM A WELL WISHER.
March 4, 1907.

Enonville.

Capt. Jack Gregory was visiting at Mr. T. Y. Dunavants Saturday night. He brought along his banjo and delighted the girls with his melodious music. He is a delightful performer. Poke Miller would take a back seat if he could hear the Captain play Come another time Jack.

There is a great deal of sickness in our neighborhood.

Mr. J. F. Coleman is laid up with la grippe.

Mr. Joseph Robertson is suffering with the same malady.

Mr. William Robinson is a pneumonia

Miss Lottie Gunter is also quite ill.

Mrs. O ie Wooten passed through our village on Thursday returning from Richmond, where she went to consult a physician.

Mr. John Price will return in a few days to Kanawha Falls, W. Va.

Mrs. S. A. Hopkins is much improved.

Mr. Tom Dowdy, E. P. Dunevant and Elmer Coleman will go to Farmville Tuesday with tobacco. The roads are very bad and I am afraid they will injure their horses trying to get there before sundown. The most of the crop has been sold. Some pedlers I think all should have been pooled. I was afraid of the Trusts and instead of planting tobacco I planted artichokes, my neighbors laughed at me. But I now have a big lot on hand and have orders for more from cousmen in Boston, Mass., New York, Philadelphia and Richmond, and one from a farmer in California. I have a nice lot of green roots to feed my cows and pigs on. They make the best milk and butter I ever used. So I don't care a snap about tobacco. There is too much hard work about it anyway. Artichokes require but little work, and I'm sure they will yield from 400 to 600 bushels per acre.

Mrs. Frances Trent Dead.

Mrs. Frances Penn, mother of Attorney at law W. C. Trent, died on February 28 h., at her old home "Fairbanks" near here, in the 95th year of her age, and was buried on March 1st by the side of her son-in-law, the late Joel T. Moorman.

She leaves three children W. C. Trent, Miss Mary G. Trent, and Mrs. Mattie Nesbit, of South Carolina. Owing to a prior appointment at a burial her pastor, the Rev. Mr. Barrel, was unable to be present and the funeral exercises were conducted by Mr. W. M. G. Lanson, of Sheppards.

Many neighbors attested their respect for the deceased lady and her family by attending the burial, but and the day been less inclement many more would have been present.

The Honorable Camm Patteson

"We learn that the health of this gentleman has greatly improved and he is a candidate for re-election to the Virginia Senate subject to a Democratic Primary. He believes that the true duty of a representative is to carry out the wishes of his people. This is true, sound, genuine Democracy, and we trust that the old "Democratic Warhorse" will have no opposition. He has always been an honest, able and fearless representative of the rights of the people and his action in the last legislature, has given general and universal satisfaction"

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.
Farmers as a rule do not keep books of ace unts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money: because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.
Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "Fooled away" as when carried a ay in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.
A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books an we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.
The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.
